"We are very pleased to be part of the team fighting violent crime and drug trafficking in Richmond County," said United States Attorney Ripley Rand. "The Uniform Crime Report shows that violent crime dropped over 15% in Richmond County in the last year. The effective partnership between Richmond County law enforcement, the office of District Attorney Reece Saunders, and our office will continue to work hard to make our communities safer for all."

The convictions referenced above are the result of close cooperation between the Richmond County Sheriff's Office, the Rockingham Police Department, the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, the Richmond County District Attorney's Office, and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Middle District of North Carolina. With respect to the defendants who have unadjudicated offenses, the charges contained in those indictments are allegations. The defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
